April Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

Celebrate Earth Day With Its Divine Helpers

Guardian angels aren't just for humans. Our magnificent earth has a legion of Divine protectors.

Take this Earth Day (April 22) to show your love for the earth and the nature angels—the fairies. The fairies are delighted to work with you and all our animals. All they ask is a respect for nature and a loving heart.

It's easy to connect with the fairies as they are close to earth. They are guardian angels for animals so they are always close by them. An animal has no ego—no feelings of being unworthy, guilty or inadequate. They live in the present moment just allowing. Animals have no self-imposed blocks to their helpers which is one of the reasons animals have great instincts, to the point some say they are psychic.

Angel Parties Return to Colorado

They're back...It's time to gather your like-minded friends, their angels and have an angel party! Angel parties are a great way for you to enjoy a free reading while helping your friends and loved ones connect with their divine helpers. All you need are a few friends and a private room for readings.

As host/hostess, you'll receive a gift certificate for an angel reading. The length of the reading will be equal to the number of guests times ten. For instance, 6 guests would earn their host/hostess a FREE 60 minute reading. You may use the minutes on your gift certificate immediately in whatever time increment you'd like. Minutes can be transferred to a willing friend.

Email info@AngelReadingsByKelly.com for more details or to schedule your angel party.

Specials

25 Minute Reading: $39.00

45 Minute Reading: $80.00

Specials cannot be combined, are valid only once per customer and are only valid through April. Please mention the special you want to use when you schedule your reading or select it when scheduling online.

Of course, there are abundant fairies in nature so going outside is an ideal location to get quiet and ask for a sign in the physical world. The Divine often speaks through nature such as butterflies, birds and even insects.

Archangel Ariel is earth's angel. If you feel called to help the environment and/or animals, invite Ariel to be your guide.

Coventina is a Celtic goddess of rain, rivers, lakes, streams, ponds and oceans. Goddess Sedna is The sea goddess. Aine is an Irish moon goddess aligned with the fairies. Saint Francis is another Divine helper for the earth and animals.

The angels say our prayers for the earth are heard but prayers are not enough. As always, it our responsibility as co-creators to take action steps to manifest changes into reality.

Angel Guidance for a Strong Foundation

Navigating negativity is an important skill on your journey in earth school. If you were building a home from scratch, you would research where you are building, the weather conditions, the condition of the land, the materials that you're building with and many other factors. If you were building your home in a land that was prone to flooding, intense winds and other adverse conditions, you would factor all of those conditions into building this home.

Now let's take that example and put it into your own life. The beginning of your day is when you are building your foundation for your day. If your day includes difficult personalities and harsh situations, prudent planning would include essential necessities to help you navigate those conditions. Just as a fireman or police officer does not go into dangerous situations without the proper gear, so should you with your endeavors.

Your morning is the time for your preparation. Tips for a strong foundation include a good night sleep, nourishing food, and connecting to your source. For some source is the creator, for others it may be your higher self, it may be a higher power of your choice. Connecting to source gives you the foundation and the strengths to weather your storm. Morning affirmations, exercise, going in nature, prayer, and meditation are all powerful tools in weathering your storm.

What tools are you using now and what new tools would you like to add? Identify three and implement them within the week. Ask your angels to help you use these tools, acquire new ones, and to be consistent to build new strong habits which support and empower you. It is only after your foundation is solid, do you begin your journey into negativity.
