August Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

Nurture Your Soul With Archangel Gabriel

Are shyness, fear of rejection and/or procrastination holding you back? Do you need help delivering messages or with a creative pursuit? Or, are you a parent or caregiver in need of assistance? Archangel Gabriel is standing by ready for your invitation to be a muse, a coach and supporter.

Gabriel is one of the well known archangels who delivered messages and spiritual texts throughout the ages. For these reasons, she is known as the messenger angel. Her name means “God is my strength.”

Copper is Gabriel’s color, and her crystal is stone citrine.

In her role to parents, Gabriel assists with every detail from conception to adoption. She says we are all parents—beginning

Your Angels Want You To Watch Your Language!

The angels often caution people about watching the language they use to describe themselves and situations. Do you use any of these words: should, can’t, have to, never, ever? Do you speak as if you are a victim?

The angels say every thought—regardless of whether it is spoken or not—is an affirmation and carries energy. This is the reason many of us feel drained.

Ask your angels to help you be aware and fully conscious of your language and the words you choose. Keep a notebook of your observations for a week. Review your finding with the focus of replacing your unwanted words with ones designed to help you create that which you want to experience. For instance, instead of telling others and yourself that you have “lost your job,” say you are now creating an exciting new opportunity that you love and are passionate about. Don’t give voice to the negative you won’t want to experience. This includes all complaints and declarations of lack and dislike. Statements such as “I can’t afford” or “it’s a struggle just to survive” all bring confirming experiences to you.

The angels remind us that our beliefs, thoughts and words are all mirrors. Keep this image in your mind as you speak and think. You are the only one who controls your thoughts, energy and intentions. Watch your language so it reflects your highest intentions of love, joy and peace.

with ourselves, sometimes with our own parents and children, as well as those souls who feel like children and this does include animal souls. Our souls long to nurture and to be nurtured. We all want to love and be loved. She says there are no exceptions, and it is her pleasure to help you fulfill that desire.

Gabriel also works with artists and clarifies that to mean anyone who is giving birth to any new creation—whether that is a person, a book, a screenplay—anything with a message. She helps with any and all creative pursuits in addition to communicators of all sorts.

Be ready and willing to take action once you ask Archangel Gabriel for help. Like a good loving mother, she will be very persistent as she nudges you to take the necessary steps to bring your creation into reality.

You Can Help Someone Connect With Their Angels

If you’ve enjoyed an angel reading with Kelly and would like to help someone else connect with their angels, you can write a testimonial. Think what you would tell a friend who was considering connecting with their angels, and email a few sentences to Kelly@AngelReadingsByKelly.com. You can also mail it to P.O. Box 836, Central City, CO 80427.

Be sure to include how you would like your name to appear (full, first name only) along with your home city and state.

Your comments will be shared with Kelly’s prospective clients through various advertisements including Kelly’s website.

Many people are nervous about a reading so hearing about your positive experience may give them the courage to connect with their angels and loved ones. Thanks for helping!
