December Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

Find Courage With Saint Joan of Arc

The saints are a group of divine souls who have significant experience and understanding of earthly challenges. While some believe the saints are determined and belong to a certain group of people, the angels say these souls with their advanced knowledge and dedication to service are available for all who ask. They are pure positive beings of light and love, incapable of being used for anything that is not in alignment with love.

This month the angels wanted to look at activist warrior Saint Joan of Arc. To say Joan was ahead of her time is an understatement. She is known as the patron saint of those persecuted for their spiritual beliefs, soldiers and the imprisoned.

Joan had a short lifetime in the 1400's. She was a teenage French patriot and martyr. Tried for heresy (any belief or theory that is strongly at variance with established beliefs or custom), Joan was a dissenter, nonconformist and freethinker. She was also found guilty of sorcery (her claims of being able to connect with God and divine beings) and eventually executed.

Archangel Michael was one of Joan's constant companions and advisers. Joan's energy is fiery like Michael's. She can help with courage, faith, conviction and matters of justice. Like all beings of light, she is non-denominational, non-judgmental and available to help, support and guide just like your guardian angels.

The angels say that connecting with any being of light and love begins with an intention to make such a connection. The next step is to allow. This means to remove any obstacles such as believing you are inadequate or unworthy. Ask your angels to hold your disbeliefs and fears while you connect to your higher self and source and simply allow.

Trust the answers and guidance that come in the form of feelings and ideas, visions in day and night dreams and signs that show up in the physical world such as turning on the radio and hearing something you needed to hear. Divine guidance is always consistent, loving and will resonate with you.

Joan of Arc was a living example of following one's convictions and beliefs in the face of great backlash. If you feel called to fight for a cause, she is a powerful resource of your spiritual team.

Kelly at Central City's 19th Annual Tommyknocker Holiday Weekend 12/3-4

If you are looking for a memorable holiday event in an old fashioned setting, don't miss Central City's 19th Annual Tommyknocker Bazaar and Events weekend. This special event is always held the first weekend in December in one of Colorado's oldest mining towns. This year it's Saturday, December 3 (10am-4pm), and Sunday, December 4 (10am-3pm).

Tommyknockers is a Victorian holiday bazaar with events for children, live entertainment, unique shopping, Father Christmas and now the angels.

Kelly Patterson, Angel Therapist®, will be giving in person angel readings in the gorgeous old Teller House both days. The Teller House is seldom open so it is a special treat if you love old historic buildings. It is well known for the face on the barroom floor and, yes, it is filled with stories and spirits. Kelly's booth is right by the face!

Start your holiday season with an angel reading in one of Central City's most beloved buildings. Tommyknockers is always a magical weekend filled with surprising treasures. Come claim yours!
