November Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

Living in Grace With Archangel Haniel

Whom do you call on when you wonder how you'll get through a challenging situation or find the right words to say? When you need a little grace, you need Archangel Haniel. She has a female energy, and her name means "glory of God" or "grace of God." She is the angel of grace as well as clairvoyance and psychic abilities.

The planet Venus and the moon are associated with Haniel. She helps all of us with cycles and particularly women as they move through their physical body's cycles. Among her specialties are natural healing abilities and remedies, including the power of the moon which she says is a powerful tool we can use in manifesting.

Call upon Haniel when you need harmony, beauty and the joy and companionship of friends. She can give you poise, strength, clarity and the ability to appreciate and benefit from friendships of all sorts.

Connect with Archangel Haniel outside on a night where you can clearly see the moon and speak to her from your heart about your challenge and how you want her assistance. Ask her to increase your clairvoyance so you can recognize help and guidance in whatever forms it appears.

Holiday Celebrations With Kelly & The Angels

Add an angelic touch to your holiday celebrations this year. Kelly is available as a guest speaker for parties. Kelly can talk to your group about any number of topics including angels, spirits, her near-death experience and the afterlife. She can also give short readings. The archangels also enjoy addressing groups and answering questions through Kelly.

Consider hosting a holiday angel party where your friends connect with their Divine helpers through Kelly's readings. As a gift you will get a gift certificate for your own reading. Just gather your friends, create a private space, and we're off for uplifting, fun Divine connections.

Gift certificates for angel readings are very unique and thoughtful gifts for like-minded friends and family. Certificates can be used in whatever time increment you'd like, and they do not have expiration dates. They also make lovely treats for yourself!

Feed Your Soul At The Divine Heart Expo

If you are in the mid-Ohio area this November 14 and 15, you are in for a treat with Mansfield's 8th Annual Divine Heart Expo. There will be over 20 holistic practitioners and vendors at this weekend event which concludes with a special drumming circle on the 15th.

Kelly is a featured guest speaker at this year's event where she will be relaying guidance from Archangel Michael's to maintain your light in the dark.

Archangel Michael is the angel in charge of shielding and clearing us from negativity. Through Kelly, Michael (and a special surprise guest) will give you practical and immediate techniques to help you feel good, to keep your vibration high and to stay balanced in all circumstances.

Kelly will also be conducting personal angel readings at the Angel Readings by Kelly booth all weekend.

The expo is at the Richland County Fairgrounds in Mansfield, Ohio. Visit www.divineheartexpo.com for more information.

Attract With Gratitude

The angels say when we put our focus on gratitude, it is the biggest attraction to manifesting what we desire. When we focus on what's missing, negative thoughts and lack, we attract more of these experiences.

Starting each morning in a state of gratitude sets your intention for the day. Think of every single blessing in your life and be sure to include the basic items we take for granted in our nation. This includes clean water, our plumbing, modes of transportation, and all of our creature comforts. Include your children in your practice of focusing on gratitude by making it a daily "game" to see who can think of the most items. You will find it becomes so easy once you get started!
