November Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

Review Your Past With Archangel Jeremiel

As we approach the end of another calendar year, it is a good time to look back at what we've experienced and what we still want to do.

Archangel Jeremiel is the angel to call on as he helps the living as well as newly transitioned souls review their lives. His name means "mercy of God." He is one of the healing archangels, and his specialties are compassion and forgiveness. He is also known as the archangel of prophetic visions.

Jeremiel's color is a deep purple, and his associated crystal is amethyst. He is connected with the Scorpio astrological sign.

Archangel Jeremiel says the purpose of life review for the living is to make adjustments and resolve imbalances, not to wallow in regret or forgiveness.

Ask Archangel Jeremiel to work with you in your dreams. He says this is when your mind is totally open, and you can easily access and accept divine guidance and help. Give Jeremiel permission to clear any old negativity or unloving patterns. Do not despair if you don't remember your dreams. Trust that the work is taking place, and be open to any signs indicating what you need to release as well as what action(s) to take to move forward.

Are Your Angels Unemployed?

After a decade of relaying messages for the angels and the Other Side, Angel Therapist® Kelly Patterson has observed many consistent themes throughout the readings. One is the "unemployed" guardian angel.

Time and time again, the angels have told Kelly:

He/she won't ask for help. They think they have to do it all on their own or it's useless. To ask for help is a sign of weakness or inadequacy. He/she believes life is meant to be hard. They will not accept, or even request our help, because they believe they are unworthy.

The angels say our free will is our greatest gift from our creator. It is universal law. As beings of love and light, the angels will never, ever violate free will. This is why they respect your belief that you are unworthy or that you have to do it all on your own. No means no to your angels and other beings of light and love.

The angels say the first step in any new transition is to be willing. Ask your angels to handle the how so you can focus on the what of your desire. They say when we allow and move fears and guilt out of the way, miracles occur.

To ask your angels for help or guidance does not mean you can't do it on your own. It just makes the journey a little easier and more direct. It's like stopping and getting directions when you are lost on the highway.

Angel Connections For the Holidays

Make your holiday celebrations divine this year with an angel connection.

Gift certificates from Angel Readings By Kelly are a great way to help someone you love connect with their angels and other divine helpers. Certificates can be used in whatever time increment you'd like, and they do not have expiration dates. They also make lovely gifts for you as well!
