October Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

Navigate Transitions With Archangel Azrael

Your time on this planet is spent in one transition after another until your soul transitions out of its vessel. With these transitions often comes grief. Our angel this month is the master of transitions. Often referred to as the archangel of death, Archangel Azrael tells Kelly he much prefers to be known as the archangel of transition.

Azrael's name means "whom God helps." His specialty is helping souls transition and comforting the grieving. He helps counselors. He also works with many souls whose life purposes involve helping souls transition such as nurses, hospice workers and caregivers.

Capricorn is the astrological sign associated with Azrael. His color is a very pale yellow, and his crystal is creamy yellow calcite.

Azrael wants to help you with any change or loss—whether it is a soul going to Heaven or the loss of a job. He says a loss is a loss, and our hearts experience the same emotions as we move through the grieving process.

Because Azrael works so closely with the Other Side he can "lift the veil" for clearer communication to loved ones on the Other Side. You can also call on him to help a soul cross over regardless of whether the soul is still in their earth vessel or is an earth-bound soul (commonly known as "ghosts").

As with all the archangels, you can connect with Azrael by sitting in a quiet place, focusing on your breath and repeating the archangel's name. Imagine yourself surrounded by and submerged in the angel's color. Be conscious of any feelings, thoughts, visions or sounds that come to you as this is how God answers us and the angels communicate those messages and guidance.

Tips for Safe Connections With The Other Side

The angels understand our curiosity about the afterlife and the nonphysical. Here are their suggestions for safe connections with the Other Side:

- Always take your divine helpers along for shielding and protection. While you are free to call upon any entity, the best for warding off negative entities are Archangel Michael and Jesus.
- Never allow the nonphysical to use your physical body for any reason. Inviting spirits to use your energy or body is dangerous as it is seen as a surrender of your free will. Beings of love and light will never ask this of you. They do not need your energy.
- Just as with living humans, courtesy, gratitude and respect or appreciated by those in the spirit world. Communicating on our vibrational level requires effort on their part. Some souls do you not know how; some simply have no interest. Always use good manners.
- Never use an Ouija board for spirit connections. The angels say it is like leaving the door open to your house. It is a welcome mat for negative and mischievous energy. Beings of light and love never use such a primitive and open vessel for negative sources as a means for their divine communications with you.

If you encounter anything that feels negative, immediately tell the spirit to leave you alone, and call upon one of your divine protectors for shielding. Being combative engages negative beings who feed on such energy and is an excellent way to form an attachment with them.

Finally, always listen and honor your feelings as they are one of many ways to receive guidance.
