April Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

Finding Grace With Archangel Haniel

Who do you call on when you wonder how you'll get through a challenging situation or find the right words to say? When you need a little grace, you need Archangel Haniel. She has a female energy, and her name means "glory of God" or "grace of God." She is the angel of grace as well as clairvoyance and psychic abilities.

The planet Venus and the moon are associated with Haniel. She helps all of us with cycles and particularly women as they move through their physical body's cycles. Among her specialties are natural healing abilities and remedies, including the power of the moon which she says is a powerful tool we can use in manifesting.

Archangel Haniel's color is bluish white and her associated crystal is moonstone.

Call upon Haniel when you need harmony, beauty and the joy and companionship of friends. She can give you poise, strength, clarity and the ability to appreciate and benefit from friendships of all sorts.

Connect with Archangel Haniel outside on a night where you can clearly see the moon and speak to her from your heart about your challenge and how you want her assistance. Ask her to increase your clairvoyance so you can recognize help and guidance in whatever forms it appears.

Connect With the Fairies on Earth Day

Take this Earth Day (April 22) to show your love for the earth and the nature angels—the fairies. Call on them to help arrange your time so you can follow your guidance on how best to help. Here are a few ideas to get you started:

- Donate time, supplies or money to an animal shelter.
- Find a littered area and clean it.
- Form a carpool for work or shopping with neighbors.
- Turn off unused appliances and lights.
- Recycle and encourage others to participate.
- Buy recycled goods and support green companies.
- Don't forget to pray for the earth. The angels always say prayer is so powerful. When our prayers join the prayers of others, the effects are divinely magnified.

Affirmations for Self Love

The angels often counsel that lack of self love is at the root of many of our challenges and suggest using the power of affirmations to profoundly change our lives.

It may be uncomfortable for you to say positive affirmations about yourself that don't feel true. The angels say the old negative ones weren't immediately accepted or believed either. You heard them over and over again and came to believe them.

Incorporate a few of the following affirmations into your daily routine. Starting your morning with positive affirmations sets the tone for a great day. Regardless of when you say them—in the shower, stuck in traffic, or waiting in line—you have a chance to reprogram old negative unloving thinking. You can say them, sing them or write them. Repetition is key!

- I am loving and I am loved.
- My circle of friends and loved ones is constantly growing.
- I love and appreciate myself.
- I am enough.
- I belong.
- I forgive, accept and trust myself.
- I am whole and perfect as I was created.
- I deserve [fill in the blank] and accept it now.

Guidance From Archangel Michael About Manifesting

"To attract positive things to yourself you must love yourself and allow good things. It's as simple as that."
