Surrendering Fear to Archangel Michael

Archangel Michael is a leader among the archangels and is a serious multi-tasker. He shields, he protects, and he clears toxic emotions. With his sword of light, he can sever esoteric cords to draining experiences and addictions. He helps with life purpose and keeping you on track. He works with the lightworkers and solves mechanical problems.

Michael's name means "he who is like God." He is the patron saint of police officers and other heroes and can lend you his strength whenever you need bravery.

Michael's color is a royal blue with flecks of royal purple, and his associated crystal is the gorgeous sugalite.

Archangel Michael often counsels to surrender guilt, shame and unforgiveness to him for transformation into light and love. He says these low vibrating emotions only attract more of the same and block the Divine as you do not feel worthy. Michael consistently says, "The guilty demand punishment, and you and/or others you select will act as punishers and attract negative and harsh experiences to you."

Another block to Divine guidance and peace is lack of self love. This is another area where Archangel Michael can guide you to teachers, books and other healers when you ask for help loving yourself. He'll also help you change negative beliefs and affirmations into positive, supportive and nurturing thoughts so you can attract and create for your and everyone's highest good.

Michael says he often hears humans affirm they do not hear or feel Divine guidance but nothing could be further from the truth. "Divine guidance surrounds you and the situations for which you pray. Deem yourself worthy of the Creator's help and then look for and be open to answers. They come in the form of signs, from other humans, gut feelings, and many, many, delightful and subtle ways from your Divine helpers. Call upon me to help you overcome any fears (aka excuses) as you take guided action."

Have Kelly Speak To Your Group

She'll share her angel encounters, including her visit to the entrance of the tunnel the night of her near death accident. Your group will also be fascinated to hear of Kelly's encounters with deceased souls and her work in helping trapped souls cross over. Discover what the angels have to say about our most beautiful experience—death of the human body and the evolution of the soul.
