June Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

International Fairy Day—June 24

Yes, fairies are real! They are nature's angels, overlooking and caring for our earth and the animal kingdom. Like the angels, they are available to help us with our earthly concerns. Unlike the angels, the fairies have egos and are partial to those who love and respect the earth and its inhabitants.

You can connect with the fairies by going outside and getting quiet. If possible, physically connect with the earth by taking off your shoes or getting on the ground. Center yourself with your breath and begin your internal or external conversation with nature's angels. Look for nature to connect with you. For instance, a bird or other animal may "hear" you and approach. This also includes insects so be on the lookout for any and all signs.

The fairies welcome your connection to them and nature. Take this June 24 to do something for nature and its angels—find a project to help the earth or do something special for an animal. Everyone will benefit!

Have an Angel Party and Get a Free Reading!

What a wonderful way to enjoy a free reading while helping your friends and loved ones connect with their angels! All you need is a few like minded friends and a private room for readings.

As host/hostess, you'll receive a gift certificate for an angel reading. The length of the reading will be equal to the number of guests with a zero added to the end. For instance, 6 guests would earn their host/hostess a FREE 60 minute reading. You may use the minutes on your gift certificate immediately in whatever time increment you'd like. Minutes can even be transferred to a willing friend.

Contact Kelly to schedule your party today.

ANGEL AFFIRMATIONS FOR SERENITY

The angels say our physical bodies take their cue from our thoughts. Using positive affirmations we can reduce anxiety, fear and calm our bodies. Try one of the affirmations below the next time you feel anxious:

- I am calm and at peace.
- I relax my body with my breath.
- I breathe in green healing energy and I exhale negativity and fear.
- I release fear and replace it with love.
- I am safe and secure.
- I am grounded in love, surrounded by peace and security.
- I am one with the light.
- I am surrounded and protected by the divine white light of my creator.
- I exchange fear and anxiety for security and peace.
