Looking Back and Moving On With Archangel Jeremiel

As the end of another calendar year approaches, it is a good time to look back at what we've experienced and what we still want to do. Archangel Jeremiel is the angel to call on as he helps the living as well as newly transitioned souls review their lives. His name means "mercy of God." He is one of the healing archangels, and his specialties are compassion and forgiveness. He is also known as the archangel of prophetic visions.

Jeremiel's color is a deep purple, and his associated crystal is amethyst.

Archangel Jeremiel says the purpose of life review for the living is to make adjustments and resolve imbalances, not to wallow in regret or unforgiveness.

Remote Readings

There are two ways you can have an angel reading from the privacy of your own home, all you need is a telephone or a computer. Payments can be made online through safe and easy to use PayPal, or through the U.S. mail by check or money order.

Telephone readings are scheduled by appointment, and Kelly will call you at the designated time. You'll need to be in a quiet comfortable location. You may want to have pen and paper to record notes during the reading (or better yet, have your session recorded).

Email readings are an excellent choice when you have specific questions for your angels. You have several options

Give Jeremiel permission to clear any old negativity or unloving patterns. Don't despair if you don't remember your dreams. Trust that the work is taking place, and be open to any signs indicating what you need to release as well as what action to take to move forward.

for your angels' reply. You can receive an email response, or you can receive a sound recording of the reading. The sound recording can be emailed to you, or for a small fee, you can receive it on CD through the U.S. mail. When addressing questions to your angels via email, please put them in a separate email with the subject of "questions for my angels."

Some people are worried about the accuracy of a reading if they cannot be physically present with Kelly. Please be assured this is NOT an issue for the angels. The angels can be with as many people simultaneously as needed and know no geographical restraints. As Kelly connects with your angels, your physical location is irrelevant—only your openness matters.
