February Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

Manifest Love With the Romance Angels

Love is the most powerful emotion—guaranteed to lift us, to empower us and to transform our lives. The angels say romance is the love of love, and love is part of everyone’s life purpose. The Romance Angels’ specialty is to open our hearts to romance.

Here are some of their tips for finding friendship or a romantic partner:

- ♥ Love yourself first. How you feel about yourself impacts every other aspect in your life. If you don’t love yourself, how can you ask someone else to?
- ♥ Release ALL unforgiveness towards yourself and ex-partners. Jesus is a great helper in this regard. Ask him to help you let go of any grudges or toxic emotions that keep your heart closed to love.
- ♥ Make a list of the characteristics you want your future partner/friend to have. Word this list in the positive. Example: “No #*$@ing cheaters,” ask for a monogamous, trustworthy and honest person.
- ♥ Do you have the characteristics you want your partner to have? The Romance Angels say we cannot attract what we do not possess.
- ♥ It’s okay to have high standards, but you want a human, so make sure a human and not a divine being can meet your expectations.
- ♥ Get out there. Unless you desire only service repair people or pizza deliverers, you will need to leave your home. Look for opportunities to meet the kind of people on your list. Go where they would be.
- ♥ Take action with the intention of meeting positive, loving, supportive people. Smile and engage others in conversation. Ask questions and listen to determine if the person has the characteristics on your list.

The Romance Angels will work with you no matter the status of your love life and whether you’re ready for baby steps or large leaps. Remember to ask and take action steps as you are guided!

Join the Bump Up The Light 28 Day Mission

Do you identify as a lightworker? This is a soul whose life purpose involves spreading Divine light and love. This light lives inside of you and can become dimmed by the negativity that comes with the earth plane. It takes nurturing, pure intentions and action to maintain your light. Not everyone’s light need be bright or even on for when we collectively join our light, it is intense and powerful.

For the 28 days of February (or longer if you wish), the angels ask that all lightworkers shine your light just as brightly as you can. Make it your daily mission to be the Higher Power’s physical vessel for love. Do this by creating joy and expressing love every single day. Share your positive energy with others. Ask others to join you on your mission to bump up the light and ask them to ask others.

You may want to start with a list of 28 things that you love, what makes your soul sing and how you can be a messenger of love and light. The angels have a few ideas: Stop complaining and start praising; create a daily gratitude list; go play; listen to someone who needs to be heard; take a negativity cleanse; forgive someone; and be present in the moment.

For daily suggestions on bumping up the light, follow Angel Readings by Kelly on Facebook. Let’s make February so bright, everyone needs sunglasses!
