March Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

Discover Chamuel the Finding Archangel

Whatever you are looking for is something Archangel Chamuel wants to help you find. He is the finding archangel. His name means "he who sees God" or "he who seeks God."

Chamuel's mission is peace. It includes all individuals as well as for the planet. Call on him for his calming presence in any situation where you need love, harmony and peace. His other areas of expertise are locating items and helping with careers.

Fluorite is the crystal associated with Chamuel. His color is pale green, and he is connected with the Taurus astrological sign.

Archangel Chamuel is very sweet and is delighted to help you locate whatever if you are looking for. What would give you peace? There is nothing he cannot help you find—your keys, a lost pet, a new job, your soulmate or your life's purpose.

As with all helpers, you must ask Chamuel to help you. When you are asking Chamuel for help, explain to him how much peace you will experience when you have what you are looking for and how others will benefit too. He says it is helpful to see yourself finding the item and feeling the pleasurable emotions as if it is occurring now.

Chamuel asks that you be aware and open to suggestions and intuition after requesting assistance as the answer may come in the form of an idea or from another person. He says, "let go of attachments to outcome once you call upon me for my help. Trust that I work through the Creator to bring you the greatest peace so your soul vibrates at its highest level."

Affirmations for Divine Connections

- I trust my guidance and take immediate action steps.
- It is safe, easy and natural for me to communicate with my Creator/higher power.
- I am grateful for my feelings, thoughts and ideas as these are Divine communications.
- I am open and receptive to Divine guidance, and I accept it now.

It's Time to Make Your Passions a Priority

What are you passionate about? While many may think of physical passion and romance, but there are many outlets for passion. Passion is excitement. It is the magical ingredient to success of any sort.

Are you waiting for your passion to arrive? If you are passively waiting, brace yourself for a very long wait. Passion comes to those who pursue, who invite and who actively manifest their dreams. It requires your intention, your vision, your commitment and your dedication.

Make a list of five things you are passionate about. Next, give each a priority on a scale of 1 to 3 with one being the highest and three being the lowest. Make another list and ask yourself what have you done in the last week to indulge these passions. If your list is short or nonexistent, it's time for a plan.

Create a poster board filled with pictures and words to capture your passion(s). Put a picture of yourself in the center of this. Finally, make an action plan of the steps involved to nurture these desires. Make sure these steps are on your daily or weekly schedule so they are not shoved aside for the priorities of the ego.

There is no soul who cannot be uplifted energized and inspired by passion. It begins in your mind. Replace procrastination with action. Substitute unclear plans and doubts with clear vivid images, ideas and inspiration. You will feel an immediate lift when you focus on what excites you. The time to begin is now.

God and the angels stand by ready to help you be clear, inspired, courageous and motivated. When you are living your passions, you are a living and breathing inspiration to others needing to find and grow their own passions.
