The Healing Power of Mother Love

Mother Mary is a part of a group of Divine helpers known as the Ascended Masters. This group of beings includes an enormous collection of divinities, gods, goddesses, deities and devas from many religions, cultures and beliefs—all aligned with Source energy and in the light.

Many ascended masters have had the human experience as prophets, teachers and healers. Mother Mary and the ascended masters are non-denominational, non-judgmental and available to help, support and guide just like your guardian angels.

As you might imagine, Mary's energy is incredibly nurturing and loving. She serves as our blessed mother, Queen of the Angels, as well as mother to our beloved planet. We all need mother nurturing energy regardless of how we were parented growing up.

Each ascended master has a particular area of expertise. Mary is known for her kindness, helping with parenting and children, fertility and healing. If you are suffering from any emotional pain stemming from birth issues or parental wounds, Mary is a miraculous healer.

Mother Mary's energy is warm, loving and you'll feel safe and peaceful. You can ask for her assistance silently or aloud. Be open to signs, feelings and good; false guidance changes, often is harsh and critical and leaves you feeling confused and unclear. Mary will help you tune into your Divine helpers and take action that feels right and positive like a devoted loving mom.

Anchor Yourself With An Angel Affirmation

In last month's recorded angel messages, the angels emphasized the value of staying in the current moment. Here is a mantra or affirmation to help you master this ability and retrain your focus.

I am now anchored in this current moment through my intention, my physical body and my breath.

Take in a deep breath and slowly exhale. Look around and find something to be grateful for. Repeat this throughout your day and you'll experience more clarity and peace.

Light Up Your World With Your Care

When we get stuck in our dramas, it's easy for our Divine lights to dim and to feel disoriented or lost on the spiritual path. The solution is to step away from our own problems and step into service.

Who in the world could use some of your gentle care? These need not be people you personally know. It might be a person or a group of people you read about, see on the news or walk by every day. Or, perhaps, it is a cause or an animal that stirs your passions and calls you to take action.

If you are not sure who would be open to your caring, ask your Higher Power to guide you to those you can help. Beginning each day with the prayer or intention of "direct me to where I may be of service" is a powerful opening for the Divine to step in and for your ego to take a back seat.

Pay attention to signs such as feelings, ideas and "coincidences." Offer your care for free, without your ego's demand that you be "paid back" or rewarded/recognized somehow for your good deeds. When you do good, you attract good. Rejoice in the joyful feelings that result from helping someone. Not only will this cause your own Divine light to shine, it will have a ripple effect on others' lights as well, lighting up the world and raising the positive vibration of the planet.
