March Specials—Angel Messages and Gifts

Find Courage With Saint Joan of Arc

As a testament that any soul can be used for Divine purposes, we look back at Saint Joan of Arc.

Joan had a short lifetime in the 1400s. An uneducated teenage girl seemed an outlandish candidate to lead the French army after a war that lasted hundreds of years. Listening to her Divine guidance, Joan became a French patriot and martyr (someone who died for their beliefs). Archangel Michael was Joan's advisor and guardian of her beloved brave soul.

She faced enormous challenges in her short lifetime and did so with humanity, grace, courage and remarkable strength.

Joan's conviction to her beliefs was truly amazing and inspiring. She dressed as a man to blend in with her fellow soldiers and followed angel guidance. To say Joan was ahead of her time is an understatement.

Joan was a dissenter, a non-conformist and freethinker. Tried for hearsy—any belief or theory strongly different from established beliefs or customs, she was found guilty of sorcery (her claims of being able to connect with God and divine beings). Joan was burned at the stake. She is the patron saint of those persecuted for their spiritual beliefs, soldiers and the imprisoned.

While some limit the saints to belonging only to a certain group of people, the angels say these souls with their advanced knowledge and dedication to Divine service are available to all who ask. The saints are pure, positive beings of light and love, incapable of being used for anything it is not in alignment with love. Their souls have an intimate understanding of earthly challenges.

Activist warrior Saint Joan of Arc's energy is fiery like Archangel Michael's. She can help with courage, faith, conviction and matters of justice.

The angels say that connecting with any being of light and love begins with the intention to make such a connection. The next step is to allow. Ask your angels to hold your disbeliefs and fears while you connect to your higher self and Source. Simply allow.

Trust the answers and guidance that come in the form of feelings and ideas, visions in day and night dreams, as well as signs that show up in the physical world, such as turning on the radio and hearing something you needed to hear. Divine guidance is always consistent, loving and will resonate with you.

Joan of Arc was a living example of following one's convictions and beliefs in the face of great backlash. She also proves that everyone is capable of connecting with the Divine. If you feel called to align with a cause, she is a powerful resource of your spiritual team.

Set Your DPS (How to Get Where You Want to go With a Little Help From The Angels) Teleclass

Do you struggle with decisions? Is it easy for you to stay on track with your goals, or do you find yourself sliding back into old self-defeating patterns of sabotage and/or procrastination? What is often at the root of these problems is a lack of clear intentions.

Kelly will relay Michael's messages and guidance on how to set crystal-clear intentions. He explains our intentions are like our GPS devices. Without honest and clear direction, we are often being "re-routed" while lost in frustration, disappointment and confusion.

In this recorded teleclass, you'll learn practical and immediate steps to set your DPS (Divine Positioning System) for real progress with your heart's desires. Even if you don't know what you want, the angels can help you precisely choose your next steps with tools for "Godfidence" in living your life's purpose.
